

The Selsey Arms, Coolham

A 16th Century country pub, offering delicious home cooked food in a welcoming environment, The Selsey Arms has been recently refurbished and is under new ownership. Located in the rural hamlet of Coolham, our traditional pub is near to the airfield, a historic site of interest, used during WWII. Recent improvements include refurbished restaurant and a new outside decking area, overlooking a brook with views towards the South Downs.

Private Hire

The Selsey Arms has inside and outside facilities available for private hire for functions such as:

- Private Parties
